JIGS

Farewell to the Creeks traditional
I first heard this on a John Allan Cameron record as the song “Banks of Sicily,” by Hamish Henderson, who set words to the old tune. It is also recorded on Front Hall FHR08, Alistair Anderson, played on Northumbrian small pipes.

---

Fair Jenny’s Jig traditional
Peter Barnes of Yankee Ingenuity brought us this tune.

---

Athol Highlanders Jig traditional
I first heard this tune as Lord Athlone’s March on Banff SBS5406, Graham Townsend, Champion Folk Fiddler. It’s also recorded on PH1042, The Piper’s Broken Finger, by the Boys of the Lough.
